CHURCH OF CHRIST

KNOCK, KNOCK!

WHO'S THERE?

WHAT JESUS TEACHES US ABOUT IDENTITY

What does Jesus want you to know about who you really are?

... INTO THE WORLD TO SAVE SINNERS, OF WHOM I AM CHIEF. 1 TIMOTHY 1:16 NOW TO HIM WHO IS ABLE TO DO EXCEEDINGLY ABUNDANTLY ABOVE ALL THAT WE ASK OR THINK, ACCORDING TO THE POWER AT WORKS IN US, TO HIM BE GLORY IN THE CHURCH BY CHRIST JESUS TO ALL GENERATIONS, FOR EVER AND EVER. AMEN. EPHESIANS 3:20-21

THE SPOTLIGHT

We had a great Friends and Family Day last week with visitors, good food, and fellowship; your singing was fantastic! We didn't quite break the 200 mark, but we will soon! While we believe every Sunday is the Lord's Day and all Christians should gather with God's people whenever the doors are open, there are certain times when guests are more likely to come. Some of those days are ones we schedule and plan for, while other times of year naturally bring us guests. Friends and Family Days allow us to invite people who will come for a "special" day but might otherwise decline. The next "big day" for visitors will be in six weeks on Easter Sunday. We won't do anything differently than we do every Sunday, but we will have many guests. If you have friends who used to go to church somewhere but don't anymore, this is one of the best "back to church" moments you will get all year! Start praying now for them to come to church with you. Invite them to be your guest on a Sunday soon. If they decline, invite them to come on Sunday, March 31. If Easter Sunday is what makes them more likely to come to hear the gospel, then definitely don't waste that opportunity!

Speaking of opportunities, John Fyffe's class will begin a new Wednesday night study on February 28. The Bible says God sent Jesus "when the fullness of time had come" or "at just the right time" (Gal. 4:4). This class will study Jesus in His context and learn how knowing Jesus helps us understand Scripture. It's a deep study class, with plenty of time for discussion after class. If you're interested, check it out on Wednesday night or see John for more info. - David

WEDNESDAY NIGHT MEAL } Tom's Smokin BBQ will cater our meal on Feb. 28 . Please sign up in the lobby if you plan to attend. The cost is $4.00.
