CHURCH OF CHRIST

JESUS IS OUR NATURE.

... INTO THE WORLD TO SAVE SINNERS, WHOM I AM CHIEF. 1 TIMOTHY 1:10 NOW TO HIM WHO IS ABLE TO DO EXCEEDINGLY ABUNDANTLY ABOVE ALL THAT WE ASK OR THINK, ACCORDING TO THE POWER AT WORK IN US, TO HIM BE GLORY IN THE CHURCH BY CHRIST JESUS TO ALL GENERATIONS, FOR EVER AND EVER. AMEN. EPHESIANS 3:20-21

THE SPOTLIGHT

Holiday World has a new ride opening up this year, and it promises to be a “family coaster.” I don’t know what you love at Holiday World, but Heather always says her favorite ride is the Plymouth Rock Cafe. It’s got air conditioning and a great Thanksgiving feast for lunch. Maybe you couldn’t name a single ride at Holiday World, but you know who your favorite music artist is. Whether you love Vivaldi, Elvis, Taylor, or Usher, there’s nothing like singing to your favorite music. We are surrounded by choices and told to choose what we like everywhere we go. Your favorite foods, rides, music, and books all reveal your identity to others. It’s hard to talk about football when one person loves the Colts and the other cheers for Man United. Instead, we gravitate toward those who have similar interests and backgrounds.

It’s easy to bring that same approach to our spiritual life. After all, we’re told to pick and choose what we like everywhere else! So we might read about the Fruits of the Spirit and decide we want love and joy, but we’ll leave patience and kindness for someone else. We like some goodness, but not too much of it. Some days, we crave peace, but other days, it’s much lower on the list. And there’s a lot of “those people” out there that really need to work on their self-control, too! We’ve lost the language of service to our master and become consumers in a Jesus culture store. While Jesus accepts us all in all our diversity, the life He calls us to lead will produce all these virtues simultaneously. The calling of a Christian is to serve the Lord with gladness, not to gladly serve ourselves the pieces of faith we like! - David

WEDNESDAY NIGHT MEAL Brown Bag will be catering fried chicken & sides on May 8. Please sign up in the lobby if you plan to attend. The cost is $4.00.
